

SMART CITY SUMMIT 2012

Milano, Centro Congressi ABI, 2 Luglio 2012

Biografia Speaker

FABIO MUNGO

Global Lead for Mobility Managed Service, Accenture

Current role and Company position:

- Accenture Global Lead for Mobility Managed Services (Accenture Mobility Services)
- Accenture Senior Executive at Accenture (www.accenture.com/mobility).

He's global responsible for the mobility managed service. His area of accountability includes definition and realization of mobility asset platform/services, cloud-based service set-up, service delivery and pre-sales for complex ecosystem supporting cross-industries clients.

Managing on a global basis a distributed team of about 200 resources.

With more than sixteen-year experience in the telecommunication market mostly spent working within the major wireless operators, he has developed a deep knowledge of technology, market and players, focusing mainly telco industry, financial and enterprise sectors.

Key achievements:

- Definition and launch of new Accenture business focused on mobility services
- Definition and implementation of the Accenture Mobility Platform, including BSS, OSS, SDP and verticals on Mobile Payment/Mobile Commerce, SmartCity/M2M, Connect Car.

Previous role was Responsible of research projects within the Accenture Technology Lab (ATL) for the Communication industry (e.g. Mobile Transaction, 3G Technology, Satellite UMTS, VAS) and responsible for the relationship with European Community Research centres in Sophia Antipolis.

Education - Engineering degree cum laude from Sapienza University in Rome.