

Genseric Cantournet, Vice President – Security Cross Processes and Projects, Telecom Italia

After an experience within two Public institutions, Ministry of Defense, where he learnt strategy, dealt with intelligence, national security and public safety and then the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, where he experienced diplomacy, Genséric Cantournet moved to the Private sector.

He is Vice President Security Cross Processes and Projects in Telecom Italia, namely, the largest telecommunication company in Italy, present in Latin America too.

Based on this dual experience, institutional and international private abroad, his spectrum of commitments goes from Information and Communication Technology projects and frameworks, throughout preserving the Corporate's interests to helping to reduce threats, especially to the European critical infrastructures.