

Paolo Capodanno
CIO, Elettronica

Paolo Capodanno is the CIO of Elettronica Spa, founded in 1951, one of the European leaders in the production of Electronic Defence equipment (EW).

In this role he is responsible for ICT & Infrastructure Services for around 1200 users. This role required the establishment of the technology department, the selection of key suppliers and sponsors and direction of the delivery of the IT.

Paolo has significant experience in dealing transformation and change management projects. His career started at Arthur Andersen, where he completed a number of positions at national levels and involved in M&A programs and reengineering projects for several multinational firms. The next period in Paolo's career was a Senior Manager with Deloitte where he has been responsible for Oil&Gas market in Italy in the field of reengineering processes and systems. In this role he successfully initialized and conducted several international projects of innovation in the domain of field services and in the distribution oil market using the technology leverage.

Paolo Capodanno is graduated in Economics with a Master's Degree in Economic Development. Paolo has published some articles in IT magazines, and administrative magazines and has acted as speaker in many IT Forums, Business Schools and at Ancona University (Italy) Paolo was born in October 1967 in Naples, Italy. He is married and he has a daughter and a son. In his spare time, he likes to read and play tennis.

The Innovation Group S.r.l.
via Palermo 5 - 20121 Milano, ITALY
P.IVA e C.F. 06750900968
Capitale sociale interamente versato € 131.000,00

TEL. +39 02 87285500
FAX. +39 02 87285519
MAIL: info@theinnovationgroup.it
www.theinnovationgroup.it