

ANDREA RIGONI

Direttore Generale, Fondazione Global Cyber Security Center

Andrea Rigoni has been working in the Internet and Information Security sector for more than 24 years. Andrea is Director General of the “Global Cyber Security Center” GCSEC, a no-profit Foundation based in Rome dedicated to Cyber Security (International Policy & Cooperation, Education and Research). Andrea serves also as advisor to the CEO of the Italian Postal Company on Digital Strategy; he is advisor to the Italian Government on Cyber Security, member of PIAC Board at ISACA and served the ICANN review team of the Security, Stability and Resilience of the DNS. Andrea is also working as an independent advisor to many International Organisations and Governments on Cyber Security.

In the past, Andrea worked at Booz & Company as a Senior Associate leading Cyber Security projects in Europe and Middle East and providing independent consultancy to National Governments, International Institutions and Critical Infrastructures. He also worked for Symantec in UK and Middle East and Getronics.

Contact Details

Andrea Rigoni
email: andrea.rigoni@gcsec.org
Office: +39 06 5958 2246
Mobile: +39 335 5772342

Address:
Viale Europa, 175
00144 – Rome (Italy)